

WINE and BEVERAGE LIST

Gourmet Traveller Wine List of The Year: 3 Glasses

National Good Food Guide: One Hat- One Glass since 2014

Wine Enthusiasts and Custodians of all things vinous

Looking back, the journey began long ago on the other side of the earth. As an expat living in London, something about the treasure trove of international vinous offerings available seemingly at every corner 'off-license', expanded my somewhat shielded 'Californian' experience of wine.

An intense fascination was sparked, and consequently a need to learn about and taste wines from all over the planet – all the while marvelling in the diversity, complexity as well as the sheer power of a living liquid in a bottle being able to evoke such a sense of place and time. Not to mention the sheer olfactory and palate delight and wonder to be had when enjoying wine, whether it be on its own or matched with some morsel of match made in heaven!

This list is constantly evolving, as is our journey of discovery in wine. Nothing, besides drinking the stuff, brings us more joy than talking about it – so please feel free to chat about wine in any way, shape or form....

All our wines are carefully curated and respectfully handled for your enjoyment by our team and within our fastidious cellar environments.

Please don't hesitate to ask if you would like something "off-list" as the cellar certainly may have some hidden treasures.....

Yours in Wine

A GLASS of wine DISPENSED UNDER CORAVIN

Put simply, a thin, hollow needle slides through the foil and cork into the bottle. The bottle is then pressurised with argon (a harmless gas sans odor and taste), which pushes wine back out through the needle and into your glass without letting any oxygen into the bottle. Once the needle is removed, argon is left in its place (hence no oxidation), the cork reseals itself and the remaining wine continues to naturally age as if it was never touched. We are delighted to offer these fabulous wines by the glass for your enjoyment

This wine is electric. Notes of hay, quince, persimmon, and saffron- great chenin form undoubtedly one of Lorie's supertstars

2018 Domaine Guiberteau Saumur (Loire Valley, France) 110

Layers of ripe nectarine and lemon sherbet fruit, a fleshy, open knit texture and a twist of powdery extract on the tonic finish. A lovely, super-seductive example of Saumur blanc.

2018 Marc Bredif – Classic Vouvray (Loire Valley, France) 65

Nose is best described as elusive, tantalisingly so. Flavours of powder, flint, light tropical fruit, herbs and musk seem to emerge from the glass with intensity

1989 Marc Bredif – Grand Annee Vouvray (Loire Valley, France) 175

What a great wine. This belies its age, with lovely mid green colour, intense fragrance of stewed apples-sweet apple flavours, with a backbone of nicely balanced acidity. Many years in front of it

PINOT GRIS & GRIGIO

Expressive aromas of peach and spring flowers. Concentrated and ripe but moderate complexity and depth.

Gourmet aromas of red fruits, with a background of vegetal notes. A gourmet and refreshing rosé whose tone will brighten up your picnic and summer barbecue
2018 Domaine Tempier		(Bandol, France)	119

2019 Conde Valdemar		(Rioja, Spain)	52

CHARDONNAY- Burgundy, France

Origin- it's so relevant, particularly in this instance. I recall reading this commentary many years ago whilst travelling: "Wine made from the Chardonnay grape is far and away the most popular wine in the world, enjoyed by novice and sophisticated connoisseur alike. And if you are one of them and have never experienced the superb perfection it can achieve in Burgundy, you owe it to yourself to explore this rarefied world. It won't be a cheap journey but I guarantee that you will never think about wine the same way again." - Nick Passmore

Chablis

2018 Dm. Moreau Naudet		(Chablis)	129
Waves of white nectarine, jasmine and verbena fruit, good texture, excellent sappy drive and long, juicy, rocky close. Just delicious.
2018 Dm. Moreau Naudet – Forets	1 ^{er} Cru	(Chablis)	225
Moreau farms two plots of vines here, over a total of just under two hectares. The first is alongside the vineyard of Vincent Dauvissat, and the vines are the same age at approximately 60 years old. The second, with 25-year-old vines, sits next to the Raveneau parcel. Enough said
2018 Dm. Moreau Naudet – Vaillons	1 ^{er} Cru	(Chablis)	178
White florals, nectarines, lime zest and gentle, kernel-like spice. It has a lovely juicy, mouth-watering close. All class

2011 Dm. William Fevre – Les Preuses	Grand Cru	(Chablis)	190
Minerality, wet gravel with loads of almond and citrus tart. Medium acidity with long finish...

Cote D'Or

2015 Dm. Etienne Sauzet	Bourgogne blanc		130
Nose of lemon and honeydew. Beautiful palate. Lemon, lime, spice, gravel, almond paste, and vanilla. Great white burg at this level....
2013 Dm. Leflaive	Bourgogne blanc		110
Fruity, floral and toasted, it features a round and coating mouth feel along with lovely tension.
2011 Dm. Roulot	Bourgogne blanc		175
The aroma on this wine is outrageous for a Bourgogne...mineral, peach, hazelnut and citrus....great intro into this producer
2011 Dm. Bonneau du Martray – Corton-Charlemagne	Grand Cru	(Corton)	400
Shows exceptional aromatics of citrus, vanilla, white flowers and spices. The palate is textbook for Bonneau du Martray, with a backbone of acidity coupled with a broad, beautifully textured mid-palate. The long, elegant finish and taut structure mixed with vibrant fruit showcases a wine with energy, longevity, and grace
2012 Dm. Rollin – Corton-Charlemagne	Grand Cru	(Corton)	379
Great nose and some serious fat on the palate, Nice and steely. Very pure. Good austerity- accessible for a Corton-Charlemagne. Medium-full body. Good grip. Long and stylish.

2014 Dm. Francois Mikulski		(Meursault)	199
Spice bread on the nose. A width of beautifully balanced flavour. Not many words needed here – super wine from great producer
2011 Dm. Roulot		(Meursault)	500
2012 Dm. Comtes Lafon – Clos de la Barre		(Meursault)	410
The palate is well balanced with a rounded opening: hints of dried apricot and a spicy vein towards the finish. This is an intriguing Meursault undecided how good it wants to be
2014 Dm. Francois Mikulski – Meix Chavaux		(Meursault)	295
Very minerally nose. The generous body in the wine adds a comforting component on the palate, there is a real richness, a real chewiness, again cream, meat and citrus, you can drink and eat this wine
2009 Dm. Roulot – Luchets		(Meursault)	445
Elegant citric nose, lifted and mineral. Fresh and delicate yet concentrated and has grip and minerality; deliciously pure fruit and good length
2011 Dm. Francois Mikulski – Genevrières	1 ^{er} Cru	(Meursault)	390
The almost surreal floral sensuality of Genvrières, excited by the presence of citrus fruit. With air, the wine is peppery, musky, the description of the citrus or the flowers that make up the nose of the wine is impossible to make
2011 Dm. Roulot – Clos des Bouchères	1 ^{er} Cru	(Meursault)	745
Ripe peach with floral notes and subtle spice aromas. Very elegant textures with good concentration-fun fruit and spice on the palate-very good drinking for some time

2015 Dm. Jean Louis Chavy – Les Foliatieres	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	189
Fine bright pale straw with a very good weight of fruit, more fruit than floral on the nose. This stretches out beautifully across the palate, white fruit along with a hint of Mirabelle, acidity present but folded into the fruit, very good persistence. Shows real old vine intensity and depth and very complete even now.
2015 Dm. Pierre Yves-Colin-Morey – Poruzots	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	650
This is very Meursault, on the nose featuring layered array of ripe hazelnut, essence of pear and acacia blossom. 2015 produced a big, opulent wine, not particularly elegant, but there is much to like.
2014 Dm. Dujac – Les Combettes	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	275
2013 Dm. Leflaive – Les Pucelles	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	790
One of two producers to work this vineyard, virtually monopole. Wish I could drink more of Leflaive's wines, others agree
2012 Dm. Leflaive – Les Folatieres	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	390
2011 Dm. Leflaive – Les Folatieres	1 ^{er} Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	400

There is a subtle touch of wood to the ultra-pure and fresh aromas of cool white orchard fruit, floral, spice and citrus nuances. There is good vibrancy to the round and delicious medium-bodied flavours that are blessed with good levels of dry extract before culminating in a lightly mineral-inflected finish that again offers fine if not truly distinguished depth on the lingering finish.
2013 Dm. Heitz Lochardet – Chevalier Montrachet	Grand Cru	(Puligny-Montrachet)	950
Precise, cool and intense mineral-driven flavours possess a highly refined mouth feel, all wrapped in a strikingly persistent and linear finish.
2011 Dm. Ramonet – Morgeot	1 ^{er} Cru	(Chassagne-Montrachet)	280
Has an enticing aroma of fresh Arum lillies, chalk and pure white peach. Precise and elegant, so beautiful

PINOT NOIR - Burgundy, France

Burgundy is where it all started and continues to this very day...the desire and uncontrollable urge to experience the heights pinot noir offers. I love the journey and absolutely love the experience I encounter with every expression. It can be a little overwhelming at times, virtually navigating through the specific vineyards and the respective families that produce this wonderful stuff. Bring on the challenge, it is undoubtedly my stimulus (fortunately) to pursue and seek out my next experience...this is a truly wild and yet so fulfilling experience.

2013 Dm. Meo Camuzet (Bourgogne) 115

2005 Dm. Bruno Clair – Les Grasses Tetes (Marsannay) 340

2011 Dm. Meo Camuzet (Fixin) 175

2012 Dm. Meo Camuzet (Fixin) 175

2009 Dm. Meo Camuzet (Fixin) 195

Very ripe red berry and currant aromas with plenty of the classic Fixin earth character that gives way to sappy and mouth coating flavours that are relatively forward and tender.

2013 Dm. Meo Camuzet – Clos Du Chapitre 1^{er} Cru (Fixin) 190

2007 Dm. Meo Camuzet – Clos Du Chapitre 1^{er} Cru (Fixin) 210

Straight wine with a lot of minerality. This wine, deep in colour and with frequent black fruit aromas, fresh and subtle nose and its frank character

2013 Dm. Faiveley (Gevrey-Chambertin) 135

Brilliant dark ruby red- expressive and complex aromas of red fruit and integrated tannins- great Gevrey Chambertin

~~2012 Dm. Geantet Pansiot (Gevrey-Chambertin) 179~~

~~Lovely intensity and energy here, hedgerow flavours bursting on the palate, finishing with hints of chocolate and spice.~~

2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – Les Cazetiers 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 390

This is even more aromatically complex with an appealing sauvage character to the spicy red, black, plum and violet aromas that complement to perfection the ripe, powerful and muscled flavors that carry real size and weight on the textured, long and serious finish. This is a classically proportioned and robust Gevrey to cellar and forget for a decade but it will be worth the wait (Burghound)

2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – Clos St. Jacques 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 495

That hedonistic experience one encounters when drinking great red burgundy can be found here...overwhelmed to find the words.

2005 Dm. Duroche – Lavaux St. Jacques 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 245

Red berry nose nuanced by hints of earth and underbrush, very pure aromas and great vintage

2012 Dm. Faiveley – Clos de Issarts 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 225

The nose has aromas of very ripe fruits ,fiery liquorice notes and underbrush.This is an elegant, well-balanced wine with very good long-lasting aromas.

2009 Dm. Faiveley – Les Cazetiers 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 345

2007 Dm. Armand Rousseau – Clos St. Jacques 1^{er} Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 1650

Armand Rousseau ranks with DRC, Leflaive, Jacques Prieur and a small handful of names that are the stuff of Burgundy legend. He owns 5.5 acres (40%) of the famous Clos St Jacques, which often is regarded as "Grand Cru" level. 2007 was a cooler vintage, but with a producer like Eric you can't go wrong. For many of us it is a once in a lifetime chance to try it.

2005 Duroche – Charmes Chambertin Grand Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 325

2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – Chambertin-Clos De Beze Grand Cru (Gevrey-Chambertin) 945

A highly spiced nose of Gevrey-style earth, underbrush, iron and stone adds ample breadth to the ripe red currant and plum aromas. The broad-scaled flavors possess superb concentration with evident volume and power as well as plentiful amounts of palate staining dry extract, all wrapped in a balanced, generous and gorgeously long finish. This has the potential to be an exceptionally special effort. Note: two-thirds of the vines were planted in 1912 and the remainder in 1973.

2006 Dm. Armand Rousseau – Chambertin	Grand Cru	(Gevrey-Chambertin)	2300
"There is excellent freshness and vibrancy to the pure, round, rich and focused full-bodied flavors that carry obvious muscle and minerality on the deep, powerful and hugely long finish. This is an extremely impressive effort and one of the finest wines of the vintage. Not surprisingly, this hasn't changed a great deal since my last review except that the length is now even more phenomenal and the supporting tannins are a bit more apparent.
2005 Dm. Dujac		(Morey-St-Denis)	250
2011 Dm. Dujac	1 ^{er} Cru	(Morey-St-Denis)	295
1999 Dm. Dujac	1 ^{er} Cru	(Morey-St-Denis)	640
2014 Dm. Dujac – Clos de La Roche	Grand Cru	(Morey-St-Denis)	820
A deft touch of wood frames an intensely earthy, complex and notably ripe nose that features notes of spice, plum and black currant. There is excellent richness, size, weight and muscle to the vibrant middle weight plus flavours that exude a fine extract on the mineral-driven finish that offers extraordinarily good length. This is primary to the point of being quite backward yet it is not hard or aggressive as the balance of structural elements is impeccable and I particularly like the sense of tension, energy and backend lift that makes this already enjoyable to drink though it's nowhere near ready.
1996 Dm. Dujac – Clos St. Denis	Grand Cru	(Morey-St-Denis)	945
Bright leaf tobacco with some complimentary smells of saddle leather and fall spices (nutmeg and cinnamon) as well as prune syrup-leathery and herbaceous tea qualities- how divine!!
2010 Dm. Faiveley – Clos St. Denis	Grand Cru	(Morey-St-Denis)	650
A very limited production bottle from an amazing site
2012 Dm. G. Roumier		(Chambolle-Musigny)	375
Expressive nose is attractively elegant with its red berry fruit profile The silk-textured and vibrant medium weight flavors are very Chambolle in style before terminating in a lingering and firm finish that is slightly clipped at present.
2009 Dm. G. Roumier		(Chambolle-Musigny)	465
Great vintage, great winemaker and just a great Chambolle village.
2013 Dm. Hubert Lignier – Vieilles Vignes		(Chambolle-Musigny)	200
50 year old vines. Red cherry, rhubarb, musk, baking spice, floral nose and medium bodied- relatively inexpensive for Chambolle
2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – Les Verailles	1^{er} Cru	(Chambolle-Musigny)	340
Such an elegant wine, exhibiting florals, clove spice, red berries and stone quality. Structure. Drink it slow as you will regret it once you get to the last glass
2011 Dm. Dujac – Bonnes Mares	Grand Cru	(Chambolle-Musigny)	965
1996 Dm. Dujac – Bonnes Mares	Grand Cru	(Chambolle-Musigny)	1195
Raspberry essence, expensive perfume, lavender and sweet spices. Excellent fruit energy, balance and seamless- this is why we loooooove burgundy!
2011 Dm. Meo Camuzet – Clos de Vougeot	Grand Cru	(Vougeot)	840
2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – Champ Perdrix		(Vosne-Romanee)	360
A lightly spiced and solidly complex nose offers up notes of red and blue pinot fruit as well as hints of violet, rose petal and earth. High-quality villages that is worthy of your attention.
2011 Dm. de la Romanee Conti – Echezeaux	Grand Cru	(Vosne-Romanee)	2600
A discreet touch of wood sets off the gorgeously floral, ripe and wonderfully spicy nose of red currant, menthol, black cherry and cassis aromas. There is impressive volume and richness to the naturally sweet, silky and mouth coating medium weight flavours that are shaped by fine-grained tannins on the firm, complex, balanced and strikingly persistent finale that really fans out as it lingers on the palate. This wine continues to make really impressive progress.
2015 Dm. Faiveley – Les Damodes	1 ^{er} Cru	(Nuits-Saint-Georges)	220
Complex nose of spice, fruit compote and earthy minerality. Powerful, expansive and minerally, it has crunchy red fruit and high acidity with some tannic grip.

PINOT NOIR - Burgundy, France

2011 Dm. Faiveley – Les St. Georges 1^{er} Cru (Nuits-Saint-Georges) 375
Rich and rounded, it offers hints of spice, red cherry fruits and a firmly, tannic edge. The aftertaste brings out a jammy richness

2009 Dm. Comte Liger-Belair – Aux Cras 1^{er} Cru (Nuits-Saint-Georges) 790
An expressive and quite fresh nose features beautifully layered aromas of ripe red berry fruit, wet stone and earth. There is excellent vibrancy and detail to the restrained middle weight flavours that possess plenty of underlying tension on the balanced, long and really quite stylish finish. This is a classy and sophisticated effort that offers excellent length and focused power.

2009 Dm. Meo Camuzet – Corton-Les Perrieres Grand Cru (Aloxe-Corton) 840

2009 Dm. de la Romanee Conti – Corton Grand Cru (Aloxe-Corton) 2900
This was brooding from cask and now that it's in bottle, it's still a brooding and introverted effort with a clearly sauvage nose of deeply pitched plum and a variety of purple fruit aromas that are liberally sprinkled with earth and spice nuances that introduce rich, powerful and robust big-bodied flavors that are dense and quite serious, all wrapped in a complex and well-muscled finish. A classic Corton built to age and it will definitely need it.

2009 Dm. Bruno Clair – La Dominode 1^{er} Cru (Savigny-Les-Beaune) 340

2009 Dm. Faiveley – Clos des Roy 1^{er} Cru (Mercurey) 94
Concentrated and a bit monolithic now. Firm tannins are wrapped around a center of cherry and blackberry notes. Vibrant and long, with a spicy, cherry aftertaste

PINOT NOIR - Australia

2016 Clarence House – Reserve (Coal River, TAS) 99
Bottle-age has built complexity, so that forest floor nuances are adding to the sweet, red cherry and cedary oak. Abundant aromas of clove, roses, wet stone, dark cherry... classic, elegant (yet generous) and aromatic Tasmanian Pinot. Slinky, silky and juicy in the mouth with exceptional fruit weight and fullness to acid balance; gratifying in every sense.

2017 Tolpuddle (Coal River, TAS) 150
Intensely aromatic, balanced with savoury spice notes from whole bunch fermentation, along with purity of varietal expression

2019 Hughes and Hughes – Milk Vat (White Rock, TAS) 79
A ridiculously small production and such an expressive wine. Dark cherry notes, herbal, peppery, savoruy- sleek and textural

2015 Sangreal By Farr (Geelong, VIC) 165
One of Oldest by Farr vineyards expressing some of the most perfumed, robust and yet refined pinot noirs in Australia- not to be missed

2015 Tout Pres By Farr (Geelong, VIC) 175
With every year that passes, the Tout Pres vineyard's subtleness and delicate fruit structure are becoming increasingly pronounced in the wine. The bouquet fills the glass with spicy fruit, mineral elements and a hint of integrated French oak, with the darkness and essence of the Moorabool Valley true expressions of site. This wine exhibits primary and secondary flavours, which strengthen the overall integration for a seamless finish. It is a tightly packed combination of plums and undergrowth with an edgy acidity—and one of our favourite drops.

2010 Mount Mary (Yarra Valley, VIC) 229

PINOT NOIR - USA

2014 Cristom – Louise Vineyard (Eola-Amity Hills, Oregon) 185
Beautiful aromatics of black tea and red currants that combine with forest floor and black truffle undertones that add wonderful complexity. The palate is plush and textured, showing wonderful combination of viscosity and tension as flavours of black fruits.

2014 Chehalem (Dundee Hills, Oregon) 155
Notes of bright red fruit, baking spice, cola and earth are met with silky tannins, layers of complexity and a lengthy finish — a classic representation of the Dundee Hills.

2014 Elk Cove – Clay Court (Yamhill-Carlton, Oregon) 156
Aromatics feature cocktail cherries and raspberry pie alongside sweet layers of anise and candied orange peel. Warm and red-fruited, this wine fills the mouth with a silky, full-bodied burst of raspberry and red cherries. Finishes with an elegant, lively grip of dusty cedar and cinnamon stick.

NEBBIOLO- Italy

Nebbiolo haunts us- so mysterious and yet so captivating and it's a real home body. The vines are deeply rooted in the soils of Piemonte, Italy continually displaying a resistance to any relocation. It displays aromas that are truly unique and mesmerising! From the top crus it will leave you wanting more and more. Pinot Noir lovers generally love to explore this varietal- fortunately they are two very different propositions providing us with just another excuse to explore....

2004 Gaja – Conteisa	(Langhe)	450
-----------------------------	-----------------	------------

Perfumed Nebbiolo with lovely soft tannins, tons of cranberries and raspberries, rose petals and the mouth filling whoooooosh. Excellent

2006 Gaja – Sori San Lorenzo	(Langhe)	865

Sori San Lorenzo is the most powerful, structured and masculine of Gaja's three single vineyard wines from Barbaresco. This wine is simply outrageous! Initially, a very restricted and tightly held nose....30 hours later, it was simply the most expressive wine I have come across, intense rose, lavish violet, savoury herbs and mesmerizing smoke...extraordinary!!

2005 Gaja Barbaresco	(Barbaresco)	420

Displays elegant floral and smoky tar nose- hints of leather and tobacco as well. Beautifully balanced, incredibly long and plenty of time on its side...divine!!

2008 Gaja – Costa Russi	(Barbaresco)	830

This wine is captivating, refined nose with aromas of blackberries, violets and roasted coffee beans. Stunning blend of 95% Nebbiolo and 5% Barbera.

2013 Ca Rome – Cerretta	(Barolo)	245
--------------------------------	-----------------	------------

Red cherry, cranberry, white pepper, mint and freshly cut flowers give the Cerretta its lifted, super-classic feel. The tannins need a few years to soften, but there is certainly plenty to look forward to. The Cerretta is a bit more classically austere in style than the Rapè.

2012 Conterno Fantino Vigna del Gris	(Barolo)	220
---------------------------------------------	-----------------	------------

Earth, tar, rich fruit, same on the palate, lots of soft tannins, medium/big body, tastes much better than the nose, let this open up or aerate, long finish.

2014 Marcarini – Brunate	(Barolo)	170
---------------------------------	-----------------	------------

2013 Marcarini – Brunate	(Barolo)	195
---------------------------------	-----------------	------------

---------------------------------	-----------------	---------------	------------

2009 Marcarini – La Serra	(Barolo)	225
----------------------------------	-----------------	------------

Mature fruit, spice, natural rubber, asphalt, tar, root beer. A "grand cru" of Barolo and undoubtedly a producer who over-delivers for the money

2006 Poderi Colla – Bussia Dardi Le Rose	(Barolo)	195

Very complex bouquet showing decided character and personality, albeit without aggressiveness. Mineral & animal notes enrich its structure and layered complexity

2006 Aldo Conterno – Romirasco	(Barolo)	390
---------------------------------------	-----------------	------------

Romirasco is one of the most famous Barolo crus from the lightest soil. Classically, but atypically lighter-styled. Red berries, violets & dried roses

2006 Aldo Conterno – Cicala	(Barolo)	340
------------------------------------	-----------------	------------

Austere Barolo, fruit is dark and intense, while the aromatics tend towards menthol, pine, spices and balsamic. Finishes with a blast of roasted coffee beans, licorice and mint.

2012 Franchino Gattinara	(Gattinara)	125

Garnet red, it has a compact nose of red fruits, citrus fruits and undergrowth. At the sip it is distinguished by tension and minerality, with a lively and dynamic tannin. Long and persistent finish.

Next door to Biondi Santi and all the right inputs to make this a blockbuster..

2016 The Standish by Standish Wine Co.		(Barossa Valley, SA)	195

Inky black thing this is, almost impenetrable. Grilled meat, lavender, blueberry and blackberry, dark spices and vanilla. Full bodied, thick with sheets of dense, compact tannin, almost a slaty feel here, well-bedded acidity, and for all the thunder, there’s something of a petrichor perfume going on in the mouth, along with scrub herbs. The finish rolls on and on, and is slick with tannin, and fresh ‘mineral’ acidity.

Texturally, a sweet and generous mid-palate replete with prominent, firm mouthfilling tannins

-Rockford Wines-

Whilst many Barossa producers were chasing the palate of one VERY influential wine critic, Robert O'Callaghan decided that Barossa Shiraz was special and it didn't require nor need to be influenced by the preferences of this particular critic. He stayed true to what he (and I) believe is a sophisticated, refined and exquisite style of Barossa shiraz that can only come from such a custodian.

- 2000 Jean Louis Chave Hermitage (Northern Rhone, France) 950
More forward, open and textured, the 2000 Hermitage is an almost promiscuous effort that's just hard to resist. According to Jean-Louis, this wine has never shut down and has always delivered plenty of pleasure. It has classic cassis and blackberry fruit, bacon fat, violets and herbs to go with a full-bodied, layered and seamless, if not voluptuous style on the palate.

Born out of Love, Obsession and some degree of Madness.' Martin Miller and his two friends, David Bromige and Andreas Versteegh, kicked off the whole gin 'new wave' back in 1999 with the launch of Martin Miller's eponymous gin involving a little Love, Obsession and, it has to be admitted, more than a Degree of Madness.
